Tansparency in NKC

1880. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Vice-Chairman of the National Knowledge Commission, has accused in January, 2007 the Penal of lacking transparency;

(b) if so, how the basic objectives envisaged while setting up the National Knowledge Commission, would be achieved, when during the year 2006 two Members, had resigned on the issue of providing 27 per cent reservations for other backward classes;

(c) whether the Hon'ble P.M. or Minister of HRD made special efforts to ensure achievement of basic objectives of National knowledge Commission; and

(d) if so, the final outcome thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (SHRI M.V. RAJASEKHARAN): (a) The Vice Chairman has sent some comments and suggestions on the National Knowledge Commission's (NKC) recommendations on various issues in January, 2007.

(b) to (d) The NKC has been set up to advice the Government on building excellence in the area of knowledge to meet the challenges of the 21st century and increase India's competitive edge in the field of knowledge. Two members had resigned on personal grounds during 2006, but the Commission did submit its reports later that year. The recommendations of the Commission will provide a blue print for transforming India into a knowledge society. These have been referred to the concerned Ministries for examination.
